Galli Estate la Famiglia Chardonnay 2009 $16-$18

A modern type of chardonnay from Sunbury, this stylish wine shows cool-grown grapefruit and white-peach aromas, with hints of cashew and a subdued whisper of oak. It tastes smooth and dry, with enough richness and structure to satisfy most chardonnay fans. The finish is sustained and tangy. Good value. (13 per cent alcohol; screw cap.)

Ageing? Drink over two years.

Food ideas Roast chicken; mild cheeses.

Stockists include Blackhearts & Sparrows, Fitzroy North; Leo's Fine Food & Wines, Kew.
